Project Guidelines
1. FundraisingScript is a funding platform focused on a broad spectrum of creative projects. The guidelines below articulate our mission and focus. Please note that any project that violates these guidelines will be declined or removed. Please contact us if you have any questions.
2. Projects. Projects. Projects. FundraisingScript is for the funding of projects – albums, films, specific works – that have clearly defined goals and expectations.
3. Projects with a creative purpose. FundraisingScript can be used to fund projects from the creative fields of Art, Comics, Dance, Design, Fashion, Film, Food, Games, Music, Photography, Publishing, Technology, and Theater. We currently only support projects from these categories.
4. No charity or cause funding. Examples of prohibited use include raising money for the Red Cross, funding an awareness campaign, funding a scholarship, or donating a portion of funds raised on FundraisingScript to a charity or cause.
5. No "fund my life" projects. Examples include projects to pay tuition or bills, go on vacation, or buy a new camera.
6. Rewards, not financial incentives. The FundraisingScript economy is based on the offering of rewards – copies of the work, limited editions, fun experiences. Offering financial incentives, such as ownership, financial returns (for example, a share of profits), or repayment (loans) is prohibited.
